

Indy Region Club Racing Rookie of the Year Award

The Club Racing Rookie Of The Year Award is presented to the Indianapolis Region member and SCCA competitor accumulating the highest total points, awarded per GCR, for the best six finishes in regional and/or national events with no more than 2 out of division events counting. The competitor will be a Racer who has never previously held an SCCA racing license, and who begin the season on a Novice Permit and met National license requirements during the season.

In the event of two competitors qualifying for the award and having identical points, the award will be made to co-Rookies of the Year. The award was founded in 1971.
